GOT HIS HAIR BACK.

Was Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicide.

Frederick Manuell, Maryland block, Butte, Montana, bought a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide, April 6, '99, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead and in 20 days he had hair all over his head. On July 2 he writes, "and today my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroy the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally baldness, so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain. Stops falling hair at once and a new growth starts. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Poison in Foods.

After an inspection tour covering eleven Virginia cities scattered over a wide area, including Alexandria, Dr. C. M. Bradbury, one of the State chemists, has recently returned to Richmond with 544 samples, the examination of which, now in progress, may result in the prosecution, through the instrumentality of the Department of Agriculture, of a number of merchants and manufacturers for alleged violation of pure food laws enacted five years ago and not heretofore strictly enforced.

The trip of Dr. Bradbury, who is an assistant chemist under Dr. Magruder, consumed about two weeks, during which period he visited, in order named, South Boston, Danville, Lynchburg, Buchanan, Clifton Forge, Staunton, Harrisonburg, Winchester, Alexandria, Culpeper and Gordonsville. In all of these places he collected samples, purchasing them in stores and making in each case a record of the product, the merchant and the manufacturer.

Of seven samples of catsups examined six contained acid preservatives, one cochineal dye, and two coal tar dyes, all injurious to the health. The acid and dyes are used to improve the appearance and keeping qualities of inferior goods. Of six jellies examined three contained benzoic acid and three dye stuff.

All the samples of canned peaches and apples contained zinc and tin and and one contained borax. The adulteration of this lot was not so serious. Four cans of asparagus contained zinc and tin and one contained sulphites, a preservative.

The manufacture or sale of an article adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the law is punished with a fine not exceeding $200 for the first offense and for each subsequent offense not exceeding $300 or confinement in jail not exceeding one year or both.

Found His Sweetheart.

A curious chain of circumstances has led to the finding by John A. Dahler, of his sweetheart, after she had been lost to him for seven years. Dahler, who is 27 years old, was, in 1899, foreman in the factory of August Von Reed, a rich percussion cap manufacturer in Germany. Von Reed's beautiful young daughter fell in love with the young man, who had been allowed to make his home in her father's mansion. When Von Reed discovered his daughter's heart secret he discharged young Dahler and sent the girl to a convent. Dahler came to the United States and went into the oyster business in the South. Later he went to Elizabeth City, N. C., where in time he became a planter and amassed a fortune of half a million. The girl in the meantime fled from the convent and sought her sweetheart in America, but could obtain no clue to his whereabouts. On Sunday Dahler, who had gone to Jersey City to visit friends, went skating on a pond on Sea View avenue. A graceful girl who was skating in advance of him suddenly disappeared. She had fallen into an air-hole in the ice. Calling upon some other skaters to hold his feet, Dahler went head foremost into the air-hole, and presently brought the girl to the surface. It was his sweetheart. "My darling Alice, is it you?" exclaimed Dahler. "Have I found you at last, John?" sobbed the girl. Yesterday the reunited couple left for Elizabeth City to be wedded. They cabled to Von Reed that the daughter was now happy again.

A Marriage Tangle.

An extraordinary marriage tangle came before the Sheffield, England, magistrates Friday when Vernon Peace, a man about 40 years of age, was charged with bigamy.

Peace was alleged to have married his aunt, Mrs. Jean Ellis, a widow, 12 years ago. Subsequently he discovered that this marriage was illegal, and a remarkable sequel ensued. It was stated that Peace was told by a friend that "if he contracted a marriage with some other person, and did not live with her, and, further, did not live with the woman he called his wife for a space of five years, he would be able to marry again." Peace accepted this extraordinary version of the law, and married his wife's daughter, Elmira Ellis. Although the three continued to live in the same house Peace and the daughter never lived together as man and wife. In December last he again married a woman named Ada Salmon, who, while knowing of the first marriage with the aunt, knew nothing of that with the daughter. It is on the assumption that the lawful wife of Peace is Elmira Ellis, his aunt's daughter, that the present proceedings have been initiated.

Elmira Ellis was called as a witness, and declared that she did not know whether she was Peace's wife or not. "I went through the ceremony with him," she added, "because he said that in so many years I should be free and could marry again."

Peace was committed for trial.

No false pretence has marked the career of Ely's Cream Balm. No idle promises of rewards for cases it will not cure. Being entirely harmless, it is not responsible like the catarrh snuffs and powders, for minds shattered by cocaine. The great positive virtue of Ely's Cream Balm is that it speedily and completely cures nasal catarrh and hay fever. Back of this statement is the testimony of thousands and a reputation of many years' success. All druggists, 50c, or mailed by Ely Bros, 56 Warren street, New York.

Preparing for Emergencies.

Active preparations for a real conflict in China are being carried on by the War Department, with a view to being fully prepared for any outbreak which may occur as a result of the anti-foreign agitation throughout the empire. Officials of the government, from President Roosevelt down, are much perturbed, and while some are so optimistic as to say that there is a good chance that there will be no trouble, all are actively interested in the work of preparation which has been set on foot and advocate the measures which have already and will be taken. Just now President Roosevelt and his advisers are contemplating the sending of another regiment of infantry to the Philippines. The Chinese outlook caused the administration to strengthen the force in the Philippines by the addition of the First and Second regiments of infantry and the Eighth and Thirteenth batteries of field artillery. These troops are now en route to the Philippines. When the order was issued directing them to go to the Philippines the government had China in mind, and at that time President Roosevelt advised that another regiment be sent. This action, however, was not taken at that time. In the meantime, trouble has been experienced with Congress in getting funds for the transportation and maintenance of additional troops in the Philippines. If the War Department can figure out some way of providing for another regiment of infantry in the islands, one will be sent. France is also preparing to send troops to China.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING. FEB. 13, 1906.

THE most casual observer can but notice, not from year to year, but from month to month, that the electric lights in Alexandria are gradually diminishing in brilliancy and that they have fallen from the fifteen hundred candle power, at which they started, to but little more than an ordinary gas light. Still, nothing is being done to better the existing condition of affairs which must grow worse, nor does there seem to be any immediate prospect of such a move. When the electric plant was installed sixteen years ago the city was told by the manufacturers that it would hardly last over fourteen years. This limit has been exceeded, and that the plant is gradually wearing out, no one can deny. It is now out of date and can furnish nothing but arc lights for the streets, whereas the need at the present time is for a plant that can supply not only arc, but incandescent lights and also power for manufacturing purposes, &c. Many believe that the city is not at present in a position to make an extensive outlay for an electric plant and many others believe that such a plant can be operated better and cheaper by private individuals, than it can under municipal ownership in which politics and favoritism are almost sure to enter. Under these conditions the City Council twice within two years has asked for bids for the franchise for furnishing the city and the citizens with light and electric power and on both occasions the number of bidders was exceedingly small. But finally what was believed by nineteen of the twenty-four members of Council (four Aldermen and fifteen Councilmen) to be a fair bid for the franchise was received. Under the State constitution the sale of a city franchise must be agreed to by three-fourths of the members of both branches of Council, so the votes of four Aldermen killed the measure and at present the chances of securing a new electric plant are poor indeed. It has been demonstrated that the electric franchise in Alexandria is not as valuable as it was supposed by some to be and in all probability its value will not increase materially in the near future, being the case it would be the city to enter as soon as possible into an agreement with some responsible corporation, on the most favorable terms to be made for lighting the streets properly and let that corporation supply such electricity for power, &c., as the citizens may desire. It is time something was being done in this direction.

IN SULLEN silence the Senate yesterday passed Senator Tillman's resolution requiring the Interstate Commerce Commission to investigate the Pennsylvania Railroad, its control of competing lines and its monopolization of the bituminous coal trade. Not a vote was cast against the proposition, and with the exception of Senator Tillman's speech, not a word was said in its favor. Regard for public sentiment prevented any one from opposing it. The action taken was one of the most significant in the whole course of the present agitation against railroad exactions. It revealed the Senate's appreciation of aroused public feeling and showed that the Senate realizes that when it is openly shown that railroads or other corporations are violating the law and operating against the public interest, it is not safe to attempt any interference with the palpably proper course. Senator Tillman dominated the Senate today. His cause was just, his resolution was based upon not only common rumor of the Pennsylvania Railroad's transgressions of the anti-trust law, but also upon direct charges preferred by the republican Governor of a republican State—Governor Dawson, of West Virginia.

CONGRESSMAN ADAMS's bill, providing thirty lashes at the whipping post for each wife beater in the District of Columbia, was defeated in the House yesterday, as was stated in the Gazette of that day. The main reason urged against the bill was that it tended dangerously toward the revival of other forms of medieval punishments of a retaliatory character, wholly out of harmony with the progressive spirit of this day and that the whipping post is a survival of barbarism. The brutality of the man who would beat a woman was entirely overlooked and but few seemed to take this feature of the measure into consideration. The maudling sentimentality of the average officeholder now is appalling.

THE House of Representatives now steps aside to let the Senate wrestle with the session's three most urgent pieces of legislation—the rate bill, the statehood bill and the bill reducing the tariff on Philippine imports.

A rumor is in circulation in Richmond to the effect that R. E. Cabell has declined the appointment as postmaster of that city and thrown his influence in favor of the reappointment of Postmaster Knight.

From Washington.

Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Feb. 13.

The Interstate Commerce Commission has a wealth of information from which to select the date for the report on the Tillman resolution regarding the ownership and control of coal mines by railroads, which the Senate adopted yesterday, and which now goes before the House for ratification. A number of cases has been heard by the commission, in which the ownership of the coal mines was the crucial point, and in rendering decisions the commission has gone so far as to say that there is such complete ownership that competition is stifled. While recognized as of the highest importance, there are not so many facts available about the equitable distributation of cars and the rating of the output of mines. The situation in the anthracite coal region has been brought out with some completeness in the Hearst case, now before the commission for decision. In that, testimony was introduced to show that the entire capital stock of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company is owned by the Reading Company, which in turn owns all of the capital stock of the Philadelphia and Reading and many other railroad and coal companies. The commission has taken a determined position against the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company. In a statement before the Supreme Court of the United States the attorney for the commission said that the purchase in the market and deliveries of coal by this company, at a price insufficient to repay purchase money and meet schedule freight rates in pursuance of a gratuitious option, as brought out in the case before the commission, gave the railroad a preference and advantage nobody else could hope to obtain.

In spite of the fact that the guests at the Roosevelt-Longworth wedding will number only 1,000, all the principal hotels will be crowded at the end of the week by out-of-town visitors who are coming to Washington for the purpose of either witnessing the event or gazing at the White House from the outside. A number of the parties from New York, Philadelphia, Boston and Chicago who have received invitations have engaged large suites at the hotels, and this wholesale monopolizing of accomodations probably accounts for the shortage in prospect. The florists of the capital are doing a great deal of grumbling over the statement that most of the decorating at the White House is being done by government employees and with material from the government greenhouses and propogating gardens. But the men who sell flowers are heaping a rich harvest over the wedding, anyway, for hundreds of orders for roses and lilies are pouring in upon them.

There is a possibility that in addition to the cruisers Chattanooga and Galveston, now cruising in the Mediterranean, which are ordered to the Asiatic station, the U. S. naval force in Chinese waters will be further strengthed by the retention of the battleship Oregon on that station. Confirmation was made at the War Department today of the statement that an additional regiment, probably the Twenty-sixth Infantry, now in Texas, will be sent to Manila.

The fact that the Senate allowed the Tillman resolution for an investigation of the coal carrring roads and through interest in the production of coal to be passed without a dissenting voice is regarded with suspicion. The prediction is made in some quarters that the resolution will not pass the House and that it was because of a knowledge that it would "be cared for" at the other end of the Capitol that the Senate permitted it to go through. As Senator Tillman originally drafted it it was to be a Senate resolution which would require action only by that body. He desired early action upon it because he had to leave Washington last night for South Carolina. So he took his resolution to the committee on interstate commerce yesterday morning and presented his case. He was told that if he would make it a joint resolution and broaden it so as to include other products than coal carried by those railroads, there would be no opposition to its passage. He finally accepted this suggestion and was authorized to report it as a joint resolution requiring the action of both Senate and House. The word was passed around among the republicans and democrats on the floor and as soon as he concluded his speech about it it was adopted without the formality of a roll call. These circumstances are the ground for the suspicion that the friends of the Pennsylvania, B. & O., N. & W., and C. & O. Railroads, which are the roads particularly affected, would not have allowed it to go through had they not some assurance that the interests of those roads would be fully protected.

George W. Beavers, former superintendent of salaries and allowances of the Postoffice Department, appeared before Justice Gould, of the District Court this morning, and pleaded guilty to the indictment charging him with conspiring with former State Senator Green, of New York, to defraud the government in connection with the sale of time recording devices to the department. He was sentenced to two years in the Moundsville (W. Va.) penitentiary. Green did not appear, and the case against him will go to trial later.

President Roosevelt this afternoon issued an appeal to the American people for contributions for the aid of the famine-stricken people of northern Japan.

Officials from a large number of eastern cities met in a conference at the Arlington this morning for the consideration of uniform classification of municipal accounts and comparable municipal statistics. The conference is being held under the auspices of the Census Bureau.

The $500 lace hat for Miss Alice Roosevelt reached New York today from Paris.

Representative Longworth had additional honors heaped on him today. Speaker Cannon called him to preside for a time over the deliberations of the House in committee of the whole.

A petition asking for the expulsion of Senator T. C. Platt, of New York, from the Senate, has been filed with the Vice President and referred to the Senate committee on privileges and elections. The document is signed by C. W. Post, of Washington, D. C., and is similar in tenor to the one filed by him near the close of the last Congress. Mr. Post alleged that Senator Platt should be deprived of his seat "because as the president of the United States Express Company he is an officer of a combination or trust consisting of all the principal express companies of the country, who cooperate to keep up rates and thus restrict and hinder trade and commerce in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law."

Discussions of the extent of the powers of the courts to review decisions of the Interstate Commerce Commission under the railroad rate bill passed by the House, occupied the time of the Senate committee on interstate commerce this morning. Tomorrow promises to be the crucial day in the meetings of the committee. It is probable that Senator Aldrich will then introduce his amendment allowing the railroads to appeal to the courts as to the lawfulness of decisions of the Interstate Commerce Commission affecting rates. When the vote on this proposition comes it will, it is said, be a tie, though it is hinted one or more democrats may be found to support the amendment. Senator Elkins today introduced his railroad rate bill, which has been heretofore published. He claims that it closely follows the President's recommendations with the addition of providing for judicial review of the interstate commerce decisions.

Senator La Follette has declined the invitation extended by Thomas W Lawson to become a member of the commission to vote the proxies of two life insurance companies at their April meetings.

A resolution will be introduced in the Legislature within a few days providing for a complete investigation of the affairs of the State Corporation Commission. It is said that the investigation will cause the greatest sensation in the recent history of the State.

A message received at Winchester yesterday announced the death in Albemarle county, of Chas. E. Wiley, of Clarke county, a well-known Virginia turfman and owner of fine horses. Mr. Wiley formerly had stables at Berryville and at Washington, D. C. He was 50 years old.

At the Fourth Avenue Christian Church in Roanoke Sunday night Rev. J. W. Johnson made a vigorous attack on Mayor Cutchins' attitude toward the social evil in Roanoke. This is regarded as the beginning of a contest in the courts between the ministers' conference of that city and the mayor.

A mass meeting of the citizens of Staunton was held there last night, several hundred of the most prominent business men being present. Strong resolutions were adopted protesting against the appointment of R. A. Fulwiler, who has been nominated by the President as postmaster of that city. The resolutions request the Senators from Virginia to protest against the nomination of Fulwiler.

It is announced that Wilber Birch has been appointed by the State Agricultural Society special agent for Fairfax county to inspect orchards and fruit trees for scale and other diseases. Mr. J. L. Phillips, State entomolgist, states that the "crop pest law," approved May 9, is to be enforced in Fairfax county, and the fruit growers are requested to assist in the effort to be made to prevent the spread of fruit tree diseases.

Judges Elected.

The election of the judges of the Court of Appeals and corporation judges of the State was the feature of yesterday's session of the legislature. The two branches acted concurrently, but in separate sessions.

All of the nominee of the democratic caucus of last November were chosen without opposition.

By an oversight the Court of Appeals judges were elected prematurely early in the session. The irregularity was discovered just after the vote had been taken. The action was rescinded and it was then decided to delay action on the corporation judges until yesterday.

The judges elected and their terms of office are as follows:

Court of Appeals—Richard H. Cardwell, four years; Stafford G. Whittle, six years; John A. Buchanan, eight years; James Keith, ten years; George M. Harrison, twelve years.

Corporation, Law and Equity and Chancery Courts—John A. Woods, Roanoke, two years; W. I. Clopton, Manchester, two years; William Atkinson, Winchester, two years; T. J. Barham, Newport News, two years; Daniel Grinnan, Richmond, four years; Kenneth A. Bain, Portsmouth, four years; A. R. Hanckel, Norfolk, four years; H. W. Holt, Staunton, four years; S. B. Witt, Richmond, six years; A. M. Aiken, Danville, six years; L. C. Barley, Alexandria, six years; George W. Morris, Charlottesville, six years; John H. Ingram, Richmond, six years; W. B. Martin, Norfolk, six years; J. M. Mullen, Petersburg, six years; John T. Goolrick, Fredericksburg, eight years; F. P. Christian, Lynchburg, six years.

An awful massacre of Hebrews is reported to have occurred at Kalarashi, Bessarabia. Anti-Semitic outbreaks have begun in three Bessarabian centers, it is reported, and the Jews in these districts are in a terrible plight.

A barge loaded with hay, belonging to the Lehigh Valley Railway, was run down early this morning in East river, New York, just off Twenty-first street, by an unknown tug. The barge was cut in two and half of it containing the cabin went to the bottom. No one on the barge was drowned.

THE LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

Senator Wickham yesterday introduced a bill which provided that after the passage of the act the State Hospital Commissioner shall be an expert alienist and practicing physician of reputation. It is an open secret that Dr. F. W Drewry, of the Central State Hospital, Petersburg, is the man whom the members of the General Assembly desire to see placed at the head of the State hospitals. The present salary of $2,000 is increased to $2,500. The present commissioner is Col. L. W. Lane, jr., of Matthews.

Senator Hobbs offered an amendment to the constitution looking to the election of members of the State Senate, beginning with 1907, so that one-half shall be chosen each two years.

Senator Mann offered a bill prohibiting expectorating in any steam car or electric car.

Bills were introduced:

To empower and authorize 30 per cent. of minority of stockholders to elect, at annual meetings, a director of their choice.

To amend the code in relation to fees of jailors. The amendment fixes the rate for keep of prisoners at 50 cents a day.

To amend the code in relation to fees of constables, coroners, sheriffs, sergeants, etc.

Requiring railroad companies to pay to owners of stock killed on tracks of any railroad, within ten days, failure to do so to incur a penalty of 5 per centum a day.

To amend the election laws so as to permit the filling of vacancies. State board of education is to elect a superintendent in case of vacancy in that office.

To prohibit expectorating in any car, steam or electric. A fine of one to ten dollars is imposed for each offence. The law is to be posted in each car used for conveyance of passengers.

HOUSE.

Mr. Gaines, of Norfolk, introduced a bill to require the labeling of all prison-made goods with the penitentiary brand.

Three bills were introduced in the House by Messrs. Bowman and Jennings to provide for the discharge of the debt incurred for the enlargement of the Capitol and supplying it with furniture and equipment. A special feature of these bills is compensation for services rendered for ex-Governor Montague, Col. George Wayne Anderson and former Delegate Samuel L. Kelly in the sum of $1,000 each. These gentlemen comprised the executive committee of the Capitol commission and bore the burden and the heat of the day in this work. The amount appropriated is $53,000. A remarkable part of the contract for furnishing the Capitol is that it had not been provided for and the furniture manufacturers took the contract with the risk of the legislature ratifying the contracts. They were willing to trust the commonwealth.

Cedar Bluff, a town in Tazewell county, wants to be relieved of its charter and Delegate Royall will endeavor to have it repealed. Cedar Bluff finds living up to its charter a burden. The town must keep its streets and the county roads in repair now, where formerly there were only roads to maintain. Other expenses have doubled the taxation.

Bills were introduced:

To exempt certain towns of less than 5,000 inhabitants from the payment to the counties in which said towns are located of all taxes assessed against the property within the limits of said town.

To amend the code, as to exemption from jury service.

Col. Slemp's Appointments.

State Senator J. C. Noel, of Lee county, and P. W. Strother, a prominent republican of Giles county, called on the President yesterday to ask a few questions and to learn the facts in connection with the nomination of S. Brown Allen to succeed himself as marshal of the western district of Virginia. Mr. Noel became a candidate for the position owing, it is alleged, to the positive encouragement he received from Representative Slemp, the patronage dispenser of the State. Mr. Noel is a prominent man from Col. Slemp's congressional district.

His friends boldly assert that he would not have thought about becoming a candidate but for promises made to his friends that he would have the backing of Col. Slemp, which would be equivalent to the position. Col. Slemp, however, made no written indorsement, and the President gave Col. Allen another term. The intimation is strong that Col. Slemp threw down Mr. Noel, though, as stated in the Gazette at the time, he pretended that Col. Allen's appointment was not as he would have had it. Colonel Slemp now takes the position that he has given too many good places to republicans from his own congressional district and can not afford to give them everything. The Noel people say he ought to have thought of that before making promises.

The object of the visit if the Virginia republicans was to find of Colonel Slemp had really held hands off in the marshalship, but the intimation is that it was discovered that his desire to have Allen renominated became known to the President, even if he did not directly inform the President.

Colonel Slemp has further added to his troubles by recommending the nomination of R. A. Fulwiler as postmaster at Staunton. This nomination, together with those of Charles M. Keezel, at Harrisonburg; George L. Hart, at Roanoke, and William H. Faulkner, at South Boston, went to the Senate yesterday. Postmaster Yost, at Staunton, wanted another term, and he had the backing of ex-Representative Jacob Yost, a power in that region. There are a good many who believe that there will now be an outbreak of the old factional troubles between the Yost and Fulwiler factions. Ex-Representative Yost is the father of the present postmaster, and is a strong man in that section of the State. Some of the enemies of Colonel Slemp declare he has made a mistake in this case and others charge that he runs with the hares and hunts with the hounds.

Execution of a Murderer.

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 13. William Williams was hanged in the jail here at 2 o'clock this morning for the murder of John Keller. Williams met death unflinchingly; indeed, he seemed to welcome it. On the morning of April 13, 1905, Williams shot and killed John Keller, aged 16, and wounded Keller's mother, who died in a few days. Williams was a plumber and was teaching the boy his trade. They traveled in search of work and Keller's father demanded that he come home. John thereupon left Williams and returned to St. Paul. Williams followed and demanded of John that he go to Winipeg with him When the boy refused, William shot him, death following in three hours. Mrs. Keller entered the room as soon as the shot was fired, and was wounded by Williams, who afterward claimed he knew nothing of what had been done. He declared he thought the shooting had been done by the woman, charging that she had been drinking. Every effort was made to save Williams, the last act being an appeal to Judge Lochren of the United States District Court, who denied it. Williams was born in England and served in the Fifteenth Minnesota regiment in the Spanish war. He was considered a degenerate and his age was 30. He joined the Catholic Church a few days ago.

The British Parliament.

London, Feb. 13.—Parliament begins its sessions this afternoon. The opening, however, is purely informal, and is solely for the purpose of electing the Speaker of the House of Commons, and swearing in the new members. The selection of the Speaker will occur today and James William Lowther, the former Speaker will be re-elected, although he is a conservative, while the majority of the House is Liberal, in conformity with the British custom which makes the Speakership a non-partisan position. The rest of the week will be occupied in swearing in the new members of the House. The real business of the session will begin on Monday when the King will attend parliament and read the speech from the throne. Today there will be the usual rush for seats. Some of the members arrived at the parliament building before midnight and since that hour, there has been a steady stream of arrivals.

When the House of Commons met this afternoon Mr. Lowther was re-elected Speaker unanimously.

Strong Anti-Jewish Policy.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 13.—It is reported today that the Russian government has decided to adopt a strong anti-Jewish policy. Hereafter all Jews, even the richest merchants being included, will be allowed to live in St. Petersburg only six months in every year. The wives, children and other members of their families will be expelled immediately.

The Novo Vremya in a bitter article on America, which is printed today, says that President Roosevelt intends to seize the islands of northeastern Siberia, and will hoist the American flag in Russian waters, taking advantage of the weakness of Russia following the war with Japan.

Eight hundred revolutionists were sent to Siberia yesterday. This is the first batch of a great group of the most dangerous insurgents, numbering over 5,000 persons, which the government has decided to send into exile.

Remains to Lie in State.

Copenhagen, Feb. 13.—The remains of King Christian, of Denmark, who died a short time ago, were removed at six o'clock this morning from the Castle Amelienberg to Christiansburg Church, where the casket was opened to permit the public to view their former ruler. The body was carried across the city in a hearse, followed by members of the royal family and court dignitaries afoot. A large crowd lined the streets through which the hearse passed and bared their heads as the coffin went by. The remains will remain on public view for three days and will be surrounded constantly by a body guard composed of high naval and military officers. Friday the body will be taken under a military and naval escort, and will be buried on Sunday in the cathedral where all Danish kings have been interred.

Property Attached.

New York, Feb. 13.—Supreme Court Justice Amend today granted an attachment for $466,000 against property in this city of George J. Gould, of Lakewood, N. J.; Wm. E. Guy and Joseph Ramsay, jr., of St. Louis, Missouri, in favor of John S. Jones, to recover the amount due for expenses in prospecting, examining, drilling and purchasing 18,000 acres of coal lands in southern Ohio, during 1902. The attachment was granted on the ground that the defendants were non-resident of New York State.

High Wind on Coast

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 13.—One of the hardest winds of the season blew on the middle Atlantic coast last night, and rain fell in torrents. Many vessels are kept in port or else are delayed in arriving as a result of the storm. The only disaster so far reported is the stranding of an unknown three masted schooner near Plea Island Life Saving Station, about 25 miles north of Hatteras, N. C. Life savers have gone to the rescue of the crew and it is expected that both crew and vessel will be saved.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies and by constant failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address:

Sick Headache.

This distressing ailment results from a disordered condition of the stomach. All that is needed to effect a cure is a dose or two of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. In fact, the attack may be warded off, or greatly lessened in severity, by taking a dose of these Tablets as soon as the first symptom of an attack appears. Sold by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Resignations Accepted.

Annapolis, Md., Feb. 13.—The Navy Department has accepted the resignation of Midshipmen Lawrence M. Ewell, of Baltimore, a member of the class which graduated from the naval academy yesterday and Joseph M. O'Brien of Summer, Mont., second class, both resignations were voluntary.

More Disorders at Churches.

Brest, France, Feb. 13.—Following the example set by Catholics in Paris in offering forcible resistance to the authorities who tried to take the inventory of church property under the provisions of the law for the separation of church and State, the Catholics of Brittany are pursuing the same course. As a result there have been a number of disturbances. At Roscoff, St. Paul and Quimperle today crowds barricaded the churches and resisted the authorities, who tried to take the inventories. Soldiers were called to assist the officials, but the worshippers still refused and opposed the troops. A number of persons were hurt in the clashes which occurred.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Feb. 13.—The general list showed moderate strength in the early trading. In the last few minutes the entire list turned heavy and prices are now materially below the early range. The room generally and conservative commission houses had much to say about the money situation and the hardening of the time money market.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, Feb. 13.

SENATE.

The Senate committee on naval affairs this morning ordered a favorable report of the Perkins hazing bill, giving the Secretary of the Navy power to dismiss from the Naval Academy any midshipman whose presence there he shall deem contrary to the best interests of the service.

It defines hazing to be "any unauthorized assumption of authority by one midshipman over another, whereby the latter shall suffer cruelty, indignity, humiliation, hardship or oppression or the deprivation or abridgement of any right, privilege or advantage to which he shall be legally entitled."

When the Senate met today Mr. Hale in favorably reporting the Naval Academy hazing bill, announced that it was a measure of great importance and that he would call it up for consideration at an early date.

By unanimous consent, upon request of Mr. Heyburn, it was decided to vote upon the pure food bill February 21, immediately after the routine business.

Under a previous agreement, fixing upon tomorrow as the day for voting on the ship subsidy bill, that measure was taken up at once.

Mr. Gallinger, in charge, offered an amendment, to be pressed later, giving to the government under an emergency the right to take possession of any vessel receiving the subsidy, the value of the vessel to be fixed later.

HOUSE.

Mr. Longworth, President Roosevelt's prospective son-in-law, gained a complete victory today before the House committee on foreign affairs, which authorized, by unanimous vote, a favorable report on his bill to authorize the acquisition of land or buildings for the United States embassies and legations in foreign countries. The bill carries an appropriation not to exceed $5,000,000. The Perkins bill, providing embassy buildings for Paris and London, alone, was tabled.

The first half hour of today's session was devoted to the consideration of bridge bills. Then Mr. Gillespie called up as a privileged matter, his resolution directing the Postmaster General to send to the House a comparative statement showing the cost for the transportation of the mails per ton per mile, and the cost of transporting express matter per ton per mile

Upon a point of order raised by republican floor leader, Payne, of New York, Speaker Cannon held that the resolution was not privileged, and it went out.

The Tillman resolution which passed the Senate yesterday providing for an investigation of the railroads which control the bituminous coal traffic, reached the House today and was referred, under the rules, to the House committee on interstate and foreign commerce, of which Representative Hepburn, of Iowa, is the chairman. No immediate action is expected. It is believed that the resolution will be reported to the House some time next week.

News of the Day.

A bill requiring the return of freight rebates was passed in the House yesterday.

In Italian quarters it is believed the Algeciras conference has reached the breaking point, but the delegates say they are still hopeful.

The British government has practically given up hope of bringing about an agreement between France and Germany on the Moroccan police question

The checking of the drug habit in the District of Columbia through the passage of a law to regulate the practice of pharmacy and the sale of poisons is provided in a bill passed by the House yesterday.

The Senate yesterday afternoon adopted a resolution which was introduced by Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, and reported by him from the Senate committee on commerce, providing for an investigation by the Interstate Commerce Commission of alleged merger relations between the Pennsylvania, the Baltimore and Ohio and the other coal-carrying railroads entering the fields of West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

For the second time in less than a month, St. Albans, W. Va., has been swept by fire, and yesterday only one business block is left standing. Fire which started in a house in the lower part of the town, destroyed B. Lewis' home, ten buildings, and the Baptist Church. Lewis was burned to death. The loss will be at least $75,000. The fire on January 31 in the other end of the town caused a loss of $175,000. Only a few residences and a business block are left.

The Parade.

As a native Alexandrian and intensely interested in the advancement of the old town, I was glad when we decided to celebrate the birthday of George Washington, with credit to ourselves. But alas! when I read the route of the parade and knew it would pass the Braddock House (which I believe has been condemned by our city fathers, yet allowed to remain as it is) my pride revolted and I take this method of begging Mr. Brockett, Major Smith and all others interested not to show our visitors the Braddock House, which every mother, wife and sister in the city are ashamed of and would abolish if they could.

The Alexandria Postoffice.

The term of Mr. Joseph L. Crupper, as postmaster of Alexandria, will expire early in April next, and as heretofore stated Mr. Crupper, who has held the office for eight years, will not be an applicant for reappointment. There are a number of candidates for the position but from information gathered by the Gazette's correspondents in Washington, the contest has narrowed down to three —Messrs. Thomas Burroughs, J. A. Eggborn and Lawrence Washington.

Mr. Eggborn, it is said, has the endorsement of Col. Slemp, the patronage dispenser in Virginia, and of the organization, but a statement has been made in Washington that Mr. Eggborn, though he has lived in Alexandria longer, has only been a voter in the city for a year, and that the people of Alexandria would kick against a newcomer being made their postmaster. Indeed some of the officials in Washington have been told that if Col. Slemp wants to make Mr. Eggborn a postmaster let him appoint him at Culpeper, his home, and that no one would object to such an appointment. Mr. Eggborn is a son of the republican candidate for lieutenant governor last fall who was so badly beaten. He was for some years a deputy internal revenue collector but for the past year has been connected with the Virginia Safe Deposit & Trust Corporation.

Mr. Thomas Burroughs, who is now and has been for the past third of a century assistant postmaster, has a strong petition in his favor signed by the prominent business men of the city. It is also said that Mr. Park Agnew, former State chairman of the republican committee, has asked for Mr Burroughs' appointment and that this is about the only request Mr. Agnew has made since he lost his position of Collector of Internal Revenue. The "authorities" it is said are now begining to see that they made a mistake "in going back" on Mr. Agnew and are disposed to comply with his request to appoint Mr. Burroughs, holding that "Agnew deserves something for the work he has done for the party" and that he surely should be allowed to name the postmaster at his own home. Mr. Agnew, it is learned, was told that he himself could have the postmastership but declined it and said he wanted the position for his old friend, Mr. Burroughs.

Mr. Lawrence Washington, it is said, is the President's choice for the place and has some other backing, but his chief reliance is Mr. Roosevelt. Four years ago Mr. Washington came within an ace of getting the postoffice but at the last moment such pressure was brought to bear in favor of Mr. Crupper, a strict party man, that he was reappointed and Mr. Washington who had not affiliated with the republican party had to step aside. Mr. Washington holds a position in the Congressional Library where he has been for some years past. The President, it is said, may appointed Mr. Washington this time as a "personal appointment" which of course he can do if he feels so disposed, but those on the inside say they believe Mr. Burroughs will get the plum.

New Bridges.

The new highway bridge across the Potomac, which cost the government $1,300,000, and is said to be the finest south of the great Brooklyn Bridge, was opened to the public Sunday. Unostentatious ceremony marked the dedication of the new structure, consisting of an official visit of inspection yesterday by Commissioner Macfarland, Congressman Babcock, chairman of the House District committee; General McKinzie and Capt. Spencer Crosby, representing the War Department. The officials rode to the site of the bridge in the palace car "Mount Vernon" of the Washington Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company, and after inspecting the bridge and being shown the working principles of the huge draw, declared it the most perfect piece of bridge construction they had ever seen. The bridge is 2,670 feet long and 60 feet wide. In its construction it contains not a stick of wood. The piers are of solid granite, the roadway of concrete, and the beams of steel. The completion of the bridge and its opening to all kinds of traffic will mark the abandonment of the historic old Long Bridge, which, it is said, will soon be abandoned and removed. The Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway was able yesterday to move all its traffic to the new highway bridge, but the heavy loading, such as is involved in the great and increased traffic of brick-making companies of Alexandria county, is in part impracticable until the approaches are completed. In view of this it is expected that Congress will extend the time for the removal of the Long Bridge until next December. In the meantime, the railroad will operate the draw of the old bridge and otherwise maintain it as the agent of the government. The new steel bridge of the Pennsylvania Railroad, recently completed, handles all steam trains passing across the Potomac, and with these two steel structures to replace the old wooden bridge a great stimulus will be given cross-river traffic and a provision made for the future.

Winchester & Washington Ry.

Westinghouse & Co., of Pittsburg, have been awarded the contract for supplying the electrical machinery for the power house of the Winchester and Washington City Railway at Millville, W. Va. The amount of the contract is over $30,000. The contract for furnishing the wheels, was given to Loefiel & Co., of Ohio, whose bid was about $42,000. The entire contract of E. Purcell & Co., for the construction of the dam on the Shenandoah river, has been completed with the exception of a fifty-foot opening in the dam which will be closed just before the plant is put in operation. The contract for the power house will be let this week. The company has in the neighborhood of 2,500 horse power at the electrical generators. The plant will probably be in operation by June 1st, 1906. N. Wilson Davis, of Harrisonburg, is supervising engineer of the construction of the work at Millville.

Elk's Social.

As has been stated, Alexandria Lodge, No. 758, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, will give a social in the lodge rooms southeast corner of Prince and Royal streets tomorrow evening, to which ladies will be admitted by card. This will be the first function of this kind under the auspices of Alexandria Lodge. An excellent programme has been prepared for the occasion and a unique feature will be the screening of the musicians and singers from the view of the audience by palms and vines. Musical selections will be rendered by an orchestra and a mandolin quartet, and the soloists will be Mrs. Robert F. Downham and Miss Graves and Messrs. J. Harris Franklin, George H. Evans, Kenneth Ogden, and R. L. Wenzel. It is said that there will be several other features in the nature of a surprise to the audience. Messrs. Louis E. Shuman, Harry Fleischmann, G. F. Bradley, Frederick P. Russell, G. T. Caton, and J. R. Fitzgerald compose the committee in charge of the entertainment.

Patients at the Station House.

The station house last Saturday night was suggestive of a hospital. Half a dozen persons had been brought there suffering from various injuries. One man had been thrown from a horse, another had collided with a telegraph pole and the others had been injured in various ways. On Sunday night a young colored woman named Mollie Jenkins was brought to the station house suffering from internal pains. It was said that she had been using cocaine which had brought on partial blindness. A negro named Doc Day undertook to prescribe for her, and, it was alleged, had given her nearly a pound of salts. She said she subsequently drank about a gallon of water. The victim of this drastic treatment groaned for some time, but later became easy and left for her home. The police were unable to find Day. The incident gave rise to a rumor that a colored woman had been poisoned.

An Echo of the Curtin Murder.

Mr. S. G. Brent, Commonwealth's Attorney, today swore out a warrant for the arrest of Pauline Miller on a charge of conducting a house of ill-fame. It will be remembered that during the investigation of the murder of George R. Curtin it was shown that a police whistle was blown from the house kept by the Miller woman on the night of Curtin's disappearance. The woman failed to give any satisfactory reason for this, and the authorities have grounds for believing she has so far kept back information which might lead to the clearing up of the murder mystery. Ample time has been given her in which to enlighten the police, but she still remains obdurate, and it is the intention of the authorities to compel her and all of her class to impart information they possess to the officers when requested to do so or move to other localities.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Joseph Parker, colored, arrested by Officer Lyles for selling cocaine unlawfully, was fined $50 or given 90 days in jail.

Hannah Hill, colored, arrested by Officers Beach and Henderson charged with interfering with an officer, was fined $5.

Tessie Criss, arrested by Officer Sherwood charged with escaping from the Crittenton Home in Washington, was turned over to the authorities of that city.

Charles Baltimore, colored, arrested by Officers Knight and Lyles for stealing chickens, was sent to jail for six months.

The Coming Parade.

The executive committee of the Washington Birthday Celebration Association met last night at Friendship Hall. The attendance was large and a great deal of enthusiasm manifested. Chief Marshal Maj. Wm. M. Smith recommended that the route of procession be changed from the square north on Fairfax, west on Cameron and south on Royal. The recommendation was adopted and the parade will now move from the corner of King and Fairfax west to Patrick. This was the only change effected. It now looks as if there will be about four thousand persons in the line of procession. The local fire department is making extensive preparations, bidding fair to outdo all their previous efforts.

Lecture Tomorrow Night.

Prof. Monoghan, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, as heretofore stated, will deliver a lecture tomorrow night in the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum Hall, under the auspices of Fitzgerald Council, Knights of Columbus. His subject will be "Travels through Ireland and Belgium." Prof. Monoghan is an interesting and entertaining speaker, and those who attend will be amply repaid. Following the lecture a collation will be served in the gymnasium. The public is cordially invited to attend. No cards of admission will be necessary.

Rechabites.

Perservance Tent, No. 1098, of Rechabites, held a very interesting meeting last night. One candidate was initiated and many visitors from Washington lodges were present. After the business of the lodge had been transacted the committee on the indoor carnival and fair held a meeting to complete their arrangements. The fair will open tomorrow night and be continued until the 26th instant. The committee on Country Social made all arrangements for the social at the closing of the fair on the 26th.

Meetings.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Washington Heights Apartment House Company was held in this city today.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company was held at Mount Vernon this evening.

Engine Rolls Down Bank.

An engine of a northbound freight train on the Southern Railway rolled over an embankment near Danville yesterday. The train was moving slowly at the time and nothing but the locomotive left the track. Engineer Beevears and Fireman Nash both sustained injuries. The cause of the accident has not been ascertained.

The City Council meets tonight.

Suits.

Mr. James E. Clements today brought suitt against Frank Lyon of the county for $30,000 for assault and battery. Judge J. K. N. Norton is his attorney. It is expected this will be quite an exciting and breezy suit.

Judge Nicol, not being able to hold the Leesburg term of his court, will hear the suit of J. F. Agnew & Co. vs the Jackson-Philips Brick Co. et als., in Richmond, at the Jefferson Hotel at 8 o'clock p. m. Col. Smith, J. R. Caton and H. B. Caton represent the plaintiff and Malcom Huffty, of Washington, and Judge J. K. M. Norton the defendants. Quite important interests are involved.

Messrs. Machen & Moncure, attorneys for W. M Power, today placed a suit in the Corporation Court against the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company for $5,000 damages for alleged personal injuries.

The same attorneys also entered suit for Frank Keith against the Southern Railway for $5,000 damages for alleged personal injuries.

Messrs. Norton & Boothe, attorneys for Mr. P. T. Harrington, today brought suit in the Corporation Court against the city of Alexandria for $300 for the loss of a horse which fell in a ditch on north Columbus street on the night of April 5 last. Mr. Harrington has also brought suit for the same amount against Messrs. Reiter, Curtiss and Hill, who were hiring the horse when the accident occurred.

Personal.

Messrs K. Kemper, Geo. E. Warfield, H. C. Ansley, Thos. A. Fisher, J. P. Steiner, T. W. Robinson and other Alexandrians left here today for Richmond to attend the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Masons.

Mr. Herbert Rose, who was last week appointed cashier for the Southern Railway in this city, declined to accept the position and Mr. Thomas M. Jones has been appointed in his stead.

Fined Fifty Dollars.

Joseph Parker, colored, was arrested yesterday charged with unlawfully selling cocaine. He was brought before the Police Court this morning when Justice Caton, after hearing the evidence, fined the accused $50. Should he fail to pay the fine he will serve 90 days in jail.

Sent on to Grand Jury.

John Whalen, who was arrested last week by Officer Nicholson charged with forging the name of Sarah Johnson to a check for $10 on the Alexandria National Bank, and whose case was continued, was brought into the Police Court this morning and sent on to the grand jury.

Corporation Court.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.]

M. B. Harlow & Co. vs. W. B. Violett, attachments; judgment for plaintiff and order to sergeant to sell property.

Alexandria Library.

The Alexandria Library will be opened for subscribers and visitors tomorrow (Wednesday) afternoon at 3 o'clock. The rooms have been beautifully fitted up, and the public is cordially invited to come and inspect them.

Another Improvement.

Mr. R. E. Knight has begun the work of doubling the capacity of his store on the north side of King street, near Washington. He recently purchased the store adjoining on the west, and by the removal of the partition and making sundry alterations he will convert the two stores into one. This has been rendered necessary by the expansion of Mr. Knight's business, he being compelled to keep on hand a large stock of miscellaneous goods apart from his book and stationery stock.

A Colossal Sale.

The large and varied assortment of clothing, furnishing goods, boots, shoes, harness, &c., in the Bernheimer & Co. store, southwest corner of King and Lee streets, is to be disposed of by the Chicago Salvage Company, which has recently acquired the stock. The sale will begin at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. This is a rare chance to secure many articles at low figures. There are about $65,000 worth of goods in the stock. See advertisement on the first page.

Nothing will relieve indigestion that is not a thorough digestant. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, and allows the stomach to rest—recuperate—grow strong again. A few doses of Kodol after meals will soon restore the stomach and digestive organs to a full performance of their functions naturally. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Tomorrow will be St. Valentine's Day.

The temperature today became milder and at noon the mercury registered 50°.

The meetings at the Baptist Church will be continued throughout the week. Last night there was another large attendance.

A meeting of the 17th Virginia Regiment Chapter, U. D. C., will be held at Lee Camp Hall tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The steamer Dennis Simmons, from Williamston, N. C., with lumber for Smoot & Co., and H. K. Field & Co., has arrived.

There was a fair supply of shad and herring in market this morning. Shad were selling at from 50 to 60 cents each and herring at 40 cents a dozen.

The next lecture before the Cameron Club will be given on Friday night instead of Thursday, as had been announced, at Lee Camp Hall, when Mr. W. H. H. Smith will give a stereopticon lecture on "Korea"

Capt. Jerome Keith, who for more than thirty years was a popular and efficient conductor on the Norfolk and Western Railway, died in Lynchburg Sunday night. He was the father of Mr. C. R. Keith, of this city.

Word was received at the station house this morning that a colored women named Brown had stolen a piece of meat from C. C. Pelton's store in the northern part of the city. It was stated that the woman who had been detected in the shoplifting was then in the store. Officer Beach hastend to the store, but the accused left before the officer arrived.

The Council of Jewish Women, of which Mrs Max Rosenfeld is president, will give a progressive euchre tonight at the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum Hall, and every effort is being made to make it a most enjoyable affair.

Train Struck Trolley Car.

A theater train on the Pennsylvania Railroad, running at the rate of twenty miles an hour, crashed into a crowded street car in South Chicago Sunday night, killing instantly three persons and injuring twelve. The killed and injured were all occupants of the street car. The engine and first coach of the passenger train left the rails and were overturned. The passenger train was a local, leaving Chicago at 11:34 p. m. for East Chicago, Ind. It was well filled with passengers, who were thrown into a panic by the collision. The street car was hurled into the air, overturned, and ground to splinters before the locomotive. The crash came almost without warning, and but few occupants of the street car had an opportunity to leap from the car before it was struck. The passengers of the railway train hurried to the assistance of those imprisoned in the debris and began the work of rescue. Calls for assistance were sent to the nearest police station, and physicians were summoned to aid the injured. The engineer of the passenger train and the crew of the street car were placed under arrest.

The Blue Book.

The official register of the United States, known as the "Blue Book," which is issued every two years by the Interior Department, is in type and awaiting the index to the second volume and the return of the departmental proofsheets to the government printing office. The volumes, in size, will exceed previous issues by about 400 pages, the greatest increase being in the Post-office Department, the railway mail and rural free delivery services having expanded. The "Blue Book" is said to be one of the most expensive publications by the government outside of the Year Book of the Department of Agriculture, approximately 4,800 quarto pages of tabular matter, containing 16,500 ems each, being required this year. At the rate charged by the office this amounts to nearly $12 per page. It is understood that the big printery has saved thousands of dollars on the publication by having the composition done on the Lanston typesetting machines.

The End of The World of troubles that robbed E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Ia., of all usefulness, came when he began taking Electric Bitters. He writes: "Two years' ago Kidney trouble caused me great suffering, which I would never have survived had I not taken Electric Bitters. They also cured me of General Debility." Sure cure for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney Complaints, Blood diseases, Headache, Dizziness and Weakness or bodily decline. Price 50c. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

Startling But True.

People the world over were horrified on learning of the burning of a Chicago theater in which nearly six hundred people lost their lives, yet more than five times this number or over 3,000 people died from pneumonia in Chicago during the same year, with scarcely a passing notice. Every one of these cases of pneumonia resulted from a cold and could have been prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. A great many who had every reason to fear pneumonia have warded it off by the prompt use of this remedy. The following is an instance of this sort: "Too much cannot be said in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and especially for colds and influenza. I know that it cured my daughter, Laura, of a severe cold, and I believe saved her life when she was threatened with pneumonia," W. D. WILCOX, Logan, New York. Sold by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Lung Warmth Means Health

"That medicine makes me feel warm right there," said the boy, tapping his chest. His mother had just rubbed Gowan's Pneumonia Cure over his chest, covering it with a bit of flannel. The powerful remedy passes quickly through the skin and gets to its work of healing and stimulating the lungs. The comforting glow of healthful lung action had come back to the boy.

Healthy lungs are warm with their own busy life. A chill at your lungs means danger. A cold nearly always attacks the lungs.

Protect them. Help them resist the threatening pneumonia and consumption, and at the same time cure your cold. Do it by the natural, harmless method.

Rub Gowan's Pneumonia Cure over your chest. If the throat is sore, rub that also. Cover with flannel cloth. Do this at night. Next morning your cold or sore throat will be cured.
Gowan's positively cures pneumonia—has cured cases that well-known physicians had given up. It cures in one night a cough, cold, sore throat, croup—any of the many ills that come from colds. Because it penetrates, gets to the seat of the trouble, allays fever, soothes, heals, stimulates, makes perfect health. Powerful but harmless. The ideal external remedy.

READ "A FRIEND'S" LETTER

"I have used Gowan's Pneumonia Cure with signal success, so that we always keep a box on hand for any emergency. I am convinced that one vigorous treatment saved me from pneumonia last winter, and I shall always be its very grateful friend.
"MRS. ROBERT L. THOMPSON,
"Raleigh, N. C."

All druggists sell Gowan's Pneumonia Cure. Regular bottles, $1.00. Croup size—enough for ordinary cold or sore throat—25 cents. Sent by mail, if you wish, on receipt of price. Gowan Medical Co., Durham, N. C.
